

CAPI Awards

EXCELLENCE IN FIRST YEAR RESIDENCIES

Seven medical residents at Orlando Health were awarded 2017 Best Resident Awards by the Central Florida Association of Physicians from the Indian Subcontinent (CAPI). The awards were presented for the first time, and will be an annual award supported by a fund established in 2015 to recognize and award excellence in residencies at Orlando Health.

The following residents received the award and a cash prize:

1. Emergency Medicine - Kenneth Chang, MD
2. Internal Medicine - Ariel Perez Perez, MD
3. OB/GYN - Shannon Hahn, MD
4. Orthopaedics - Justin Steinert, MD
5. Pathology - Lohini Sundharkrishnan, MD
6. Pediatrics - Mariam Zeini, MD
7. Surgery (General) - Danielle Henry, MD

Vijay Patange, MD, Chief of Radiology at South Lake Hospital, Partner at Medical Center Radiology Group and 2017 CAPI President, Mario Madruga, MD, Program Director, Internal Medicine Residency Program and Designated Institutional Official, Orlando Health and Sudhir Bhaskar, MD, Gastroenterologist at Central Florida Gastroenterology, member of the Orlando Health Foundation and the 2015 CAPI President

CAPI was established to provide its member physicians and dentists a forum to facilitate:

- Professional opportunities for continuing medical education
- Medical conferences
- Community health fairs
- Professional & leadership development
- Networking
- Service to the Central Florida healthcare community

The organization, which is a division of the American Association of Physicians of Indian Origin (AAPI), has over 600 local members and is one of the largest subchapters in the nation. Many members of CAPI serve throughout Orlando Health facilities.
